

TEAM European Team for Events

SERVICE AREA Technical Production

ROLE Audio, Video, Lighting Operators

WHAT CAN YOU DO? - DESCRIPTION

Position for Audio, Video, and Lighting operators in each region to be operational during events with the Main Speaker in the European region.

SKILLS, EXPERIENCE & RESOURCES

No previous experience necessary but strong will to learn.

Be able to be really methodical in their approach to the job. Predisposed to technical skills, electrical smart.

Able to communicate openly with Project Manager.

Must have energy and ability to learn quickly.

Must be willing to learn some specific software in order to run operation.

Must not be afraid to make mistakes.

Good teamwork skills.

Good communications skills,

Must have good communication skills in English both spoken and written.

Must be physically fit; be able to be on their feet all day during the event days, and during set up.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Computer access.

Enthusiastic to take on the role.

Resume (CV) and picture required.

Candidates will need to go through an interview process, live or by phone

During events in the region must be able to travel from one event to the other at own expenses.

When there is no event in the region, must be willing to keep in touch with the role and learn the trade, and stay up to date.

VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED

3 Audio Operators, 3 Video Operators, 3 Lighting Operators

TIME REQUIRED

During the events, full time. 8 hours a day the day(s) of set up, and the day(s) of the event/ Adequate breaks will be included.

When an event is announced in your region, about 10-15 hours a week.

Other times, around 8 hours a week.

Apprenticeship might last up to 10 events, so 10 events commitment is required. For the first 2-3 events all candidate of a region are expected to attend the events in their region so that they can all get a good start and proper training, after that they could rotate.

TIMELINE:

As soon as possible.

CONTACT: Don't forget to mention the ref: AVL / Europe when you contact with

Begoña Trillo, Service Area Manager, (SAM)
btrillosam@gmail.com